55 Fellows and Visiting Scholars to pursue their programs in the United States

TP – On June 13, 2012, the Vietnam Education Foundation (VEF) announced that 55 Vietnamese nationals, including 6 Visiting Scholars and 49 Fellows, will pursue their graduate and postdoctoral programs in the United States.

Dr. Lynne A. McNamara, VEF Executive Director, commented that they are the most outstanding applicants out of many ones in this cohort.

The new Fellows and Visiting Scholars will undertake their programs at 34 leading universities in the United States.
