A summary of VEF Support: Full financial terms can be found in the VEF Financial Support Letter, provided by the applicant.

1. Fellowship Grant to the University. VEF will provide an annual Fellowship grant of $27,000 per year to the University during the Fellow’s first two years of study. The University is expected to provide additional funds to supplement this VEF annual grant, if there is a financial shortfall. From the third year and beyond, the University must provide full financial support for the Fellow.
2. Professional Development Grant to the University. VEF will provide each Fellow $1,000 per year as a Professional Development Grant (PDG) as long as the Fellow is enrolled full time under VEF sponsorship, is in good standing and maintaining proper immigration status, and is not engaged in Academic Training (off-campus employment benefit of the J-1 visa status). VEF Fellows, who advance from a Master's degree to a doctoral degree and continue to be sponsored by VEF, will be eligible to receive the PDG for the duration of their doctoral program.

3. Payment of Funds to the University. VEF will electronically transfer both the university grant ($27,000 for each Fellow for the first two years) and the PDG ($1,000 for each Fellow) to the University by the beginning of the academic year.
4. Other VEF Financial Support. VEF provides the following for the Fellow:
 - All costs related to pre-academic English language training (only during the summer prior to the first fall semester start date), if required by the University.
 - All costs related to the Pre-Departure Orientation training in Vietnam and a physical exam (health check) and required inoculations prior to the Fellow's departure to the United States.
 - Economy-class airfare from Vietnam at the beginning, and return at the completion, of the Fellow's program.
 - A modest settling-in allowance to help cover personal incidental expenses in the United States.
 - The costs for Fellows to attend the Annual Conference of VEF Fellows and Scholars to be held in the United States on January 3-5 annually.

I confirm that the University is in agreement with the financial terms of the Vietnam Education Foundation (VEF).
